

NATIONAL SNAKE DAY QUIZ – KEY

1. Snakes are cold-blooded. What's another word for cold-blooded?

- a. endotherm
- b. ectotherm
- c. exotherm
- d. andotherm

Answer - b. ectotherm

2. The world's smallest snake is the _____.

- a. Barbados thread snake
- b. Bimini blind snake
- c. ringneck snake
- d. ball python

Answer - a. Barbados thread snake

3. The world's longest snake is the _____.

- a. ringneck snake
- b. ball python
- c. reticulated python
- d. green anaconda

Answer – c. reticulated python

4. Most snakes are nocturnal, meaning they _____.

- a. sleep with their eyes open.
- b. sleep at night.
- c. sleep during the day.
- d. hibernate.

Answer - c. sleep during the day.

Snakes dis-articulate their upper and lower jaws allowing them to consume their prey whole. How many times larger can a snake's prey be due to this ability?

- a. four times
- b. three times
- c. two times
- d. six times

Answer - b. three times